

NELLIE BLY TAKES THE KEELEY CURE.

A WEEK AMONG THE COLONY OF UNFORTUNATE WOMEN AT WHITE PLAINS.

SEE NEXT SUNDAY'S WORLD.

EXTRA.
2 O'CLOCK.

ARTEAGA HAD NO LICENSE.

Yet He Says He Ran a Concert Hall in Police Capt. Price's Precinct.

MUNZINGER ON THE STAND.

Treasurer of the Pequot Club Ordered to Bring His Account Books.

SHEEHAN TO BE A WITNESS.

If McClave Is Too Ill His Fellow-Commissioner Will Be Called Next Week.

Members of the Police Investigating Committee were bountifully of red roses this morning in honor of the great achievements of the past eventful week, which wound up with yesterday's field day.

Lawyer Moss was similarly decorated. He was one of the early comers, and when asked as to the outlook for the day, admitted that there were no distinguished citizens like Justice Roesch down on the programme.

"We have several good witnesses, however, who will give corroborative evidence in the 'protection' system and fill out a half-day's session, which is all the time the Senators can give to-day," said Mr. Moss.

It was learned, however, that the prospect for some exceedingly lively sessions next week was very favorable, for if Mr. McClave is not well enough to go on the witness stand it is probable that his colleague, Commissioner Sheehan, will be called.

Now that the assurance has been given that plenty of money will be forthcoming to pay the expenses of the investigation, the members of the Committee, as well as the counsel engaged by them, are more easy in mind.

It is understood that the fund which is being raised by President Charles S. Smith, of the Chamber of Commerce, is not limited to $25,000, but that a sufficient amount will be raised to enable the Committee to keep up its work all summer, if necessary.

Chairman Lexow says he will not draw upon Mr. Smith, however, until he first ascertains whether some funds cannot be obtained from the State Treasurer.

Treasurer Munzinger's First.
The first witness called by Mr. Goff was Louis Munzinger, who said he was Treasurer of the Pequot Club, the Tammany organization of which Police Commissioner John C. Sheehan is President.

The witness said he had been subpoenaed before, but had not appeared because it was served on the evening of the day on which he was summoned to appear.

"I didn't think it necessary. I was here one day, but my name was not called," said Mr. Goff. "I have called you a dozen times," said Mr. Goff. "Have you brought the list of the members of the Club which you were directed to produce?"

"I have not," said Mr. Goff. "Why not?" "Because I haven't any roll of members in my possession."

Mr. Munzinger was evidently a very unwilling witness, and gave his answers very reluctantly. He denied any printed list of members of the Pequot Club was ever published, but Mr. Goff produced a little blue-covered book which was printed this year.

"Was a recreation club book, printed by John J. Daly, a member of the club, and which he remembered that he had seen such a book, but said he had never examined it and did not know what was in it."

He said that besides being treasurer of the Club he was a Port Warden of New York. The recording secretary was Benjamin Dale; the financial secretary, Abraham Lichtenstein, and the vice-presidents, Isaac H. Terrill and G. Springsteen.

but could not get a license from Mayor Grant, so I decided to run without one. One of my customers told me that if I went to see the captain I could make arrangements to have a concert hall without a license. So I went to the station in West Thirty-seventh street and saw the captain in his private office.

"Who was the captain?" "I didn't know his name, but he was a big, thick-set man with a black mustache and wore a big diamond."

"What was it called, Price?" "I didn't ask his name."

McClave on the Mend.

PORTLAND, N. Y., June 8.—Police Commissioner McClave passed a comfortable night and appeared a little stronger this morning. The attending physician said Mr. McClave's nerves were steadier and his appetite better. The Commissioner sent for a letter this morning to advise him.

QUIET AT CRIPPLE CREEK.

Reports of a Battle in the Night Were False.

Miners Use Dynamite to Stop Trains at Martin's Ferry.

(By Associated Press.)

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., June 8.—Authentic information from the scene of this morning's skirmish states that the death list will not exceed two or three.

All reports of a night engagement are absolutely false. Everything has been quiet.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT FOR $2

Antonio Donolo Stabbed Angello Finello Three Times.

The Latter Was Unable to Repay a Loan Upon Demand.

Antonio Donolo, an Italian laborer, of 350 Cortland avenue, was held without bail in Morrisania Police Court this morning to await the result of three stab wounds which he is said to have inflicted upon Angello Finello, of 639 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, at 11 o'clock last night.

"Finello was stabbed under the right shoulder blade, in the right side and in the back of the neck. He is lying in Harlem Hospital, and his recovery is said to be doubtful."

Finello has for some time owed Donolo $2. Last night the men met in front of 522 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street. Donolo demanded the money. A fight resulted.

The men were separated by friends. Donolo going to his home. Finello went into the house No. 522, where some of his friends lived. Donolo returned armed with a dirk and hid in an alley between the house 522 East One Hundred and Nineteenth street and a saloon next door.

When Finello left his friends to go home, Donolo rushed from his hiding place and set upon the defenceless Italian. He stabbed him three times in rapid succession and started to run.

In the mean time friends of both men had appeared and the shouting of the men summoned Policemen Finello, of the East One Hundred and Sixty-first street, eight gold watches, $20; five silver chains, $10; five pair diamond earrings, $25; thirty pair gold earrings, $25; $20; eight gold watches, $20; five gold chains, $10; 100 gold and diamond rings, $100.

The only clue the police had this morning was obtained by Vardeman Graham, a police officer, who said that two young men, who were friends of Schiefel, said that Schiefel had, within the past month, showed them a roll watch and a diamond ring. Also two pawn tickets from this place, which he said the young man had a half-year's jewelry a little at a time, but finally decided to take it all at once.

CHILD DRANK POISON.

Found the Bottle Containing It While His Mother Was Out.

Frank Carlos, four years old, is in St. Catherine's Hospital, Williamsburg, suffering from the effects of poison, and there is only a faint chance of his recovery.

The child was left alone in a room of the house 75 Leonard street this morning, while his mother went to a neighboring grocery.

In one corner of the room he found a bottle of carbolic acid, and managed to drink a quantity of it. He was found by Mrs. Carlos when she returned ten minutes later, but an ambulance surgeon, who was summoned, said he could get him to the hospital.

SCOTCH MINERS TO STRIKE.

Federation Votes to Resist a Reduction in Wages.

ARSON AFTER THEFT.

Police Want George Schiefel on a Double Charge.

Said to Have Started a Fire After Stealing Jewelry.

Goods Valued at $3,000 Stolen from His Landlady.

Two detectives of Inspector McLaughlin's staff and the ward men of the East Sixty-seventh street station, under the direction of Capt. Strauss, are searching the city to-day for George Schiefel, eighteen years old, who is suspected of having stolen $3,000 worth of jewelry yesterday and then set fire to a house at 408 East Sixty-ninth street to conceal the robbery.

Mrs. Anna Beran, widow of a jeweller who was in business in One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, resides at the address given. A few months ago she took Schiefel as a boarder. He came to her strongly recommended by his uncle, a Mr. Behler, who is the President of a lodge that owns the house in which Mrs. Beran lives.

Mrs. Beran lived in the third floor, and had four rooms. Schiefel occupied a small room in the rear. He has lived with her, and for the past month has paid no board. In a closet in the room Mrs. Beran kept a satchel filled with diamonds and jewelry, which she had retained from the stock in her husband's jewelry store. The woman believes that Schiefel knew this jewelry was in the house.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Beran went out to pay a visit to some friends in Hoboken and did not return until late in the evening. At 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon tenants in the house discovered that something was wrong. There was smoke in the hall, and it got thicker and thicker.

Finally an alarm was made and fire was discovered in Mrs. Beran's room. An alarm was turned in, but the flames, which were confined to Mrs. Beran's bedroom, were extinguished before more than $300 damage had been done.

The circumstances looked suspicious to the firemen, as there was no fire in any of the other rooms, and the fire was in the room of a boarder. The Fire Marshal was asked to investigate.

Mrs. Beran first learned of the fire when she reached home at 10:30 o'clock. She immediately thought of the jewelry and rushed up stairs. The bag with the jewelry was gone. Schiefel, it is said, had been in the room during Mrs. Beran's absence, and had left early in the afternoon. The police were notified, and Mrs. Beran, who then began to suspect Schiefel.

Half an hour before the smoke was discovered in the hall Schiefel had come to the housekeeper and said: "I am going to end my life."

"I don't know what you mean," said the housekeeper. "I am going to end my life," he repeated. "I am going to end my life," he repeated. "I am going to end my life," he repeated.

The room in which the jewelry had been kept was locked. The youth had no key to it. But the door had been forced, and near the lock were the marks of a "jimmy."

The police think that the robbery was committed by Schiefel, and that he then set fire to the house. The suspected youth is described as being of medium build, about 5 feet 4 inches tall, and with a small face. He is said to be a native of England.

The housekeeper saw him last he was dressed in a light checked coat and vest. He had on a soft felt hat and a pair of light shoes. General instructions have been sent out to watch all the steamship office and pier as well as the docks from which any vessels may sail.

The stolen jewelry as reported to the police is as follows: Twenty-five gold watches, $200; one pair solitaire diamond earrings, $150; four diamond rings, $200; three ladies' gold watches, $120; silver watches, $75; 150 ladies' gold rings, $250; eight gold watches, $20; five silver chains, $10; five pair diamond earrings, $25; thirty pair gold earrings, $25; $20; eight gold watches, $20; five gold chains, $10; 100 gold and diamond rings, $100.

CHILD DRANK POISON.

Found the Bottle Containing It While His Mother Was Out.

Frank Carlos, four years old, is in St. Catherine's Hospital, Williamsburg, suffering from the effects of poison, and there is only a faint chance of his recovery.

The child was left alone in a room of the house 75 Leonard street this morning, while his mother went to a neighboring grocery.

In one corner of the room he found a bottle of carbolic acid, and managed to drink a quantity of it. He was found by Mrs. Carlos when she returned ten minutes later, but an ambulance surgeon, who was summoned, said he could get him to the hospital.

SCOTCH MINERS TO STRIKE.

Federation Votes to Resist a Reduction in Wages.

(By Associated Press.)

EDINBURGH, June 8.—The Scottish Miners' Federation has decided by a majority vote in favor of a strike. Representatives of the Mine Owners' Association of Scotland on Wednesday last unanimously resolved to reduce wages one shilling per day.

COLLISION AT SEA.

Fuerst Bismarck and the Barkentine Louise Crash Together.

The Sailing Vessel Abandoned by Her Captain and Crew.

Two Steamship Officers and Eight Sailors Manned Her.

The Hamburg-American line steamship Fuerst Bismarck, Capt. Albers, which arrived this morning from Hamburg and Southampton, reports that on the voyage from New York to Hamburg May 22, at 1:30 A. M., she was in collision with the French barkentine Louise, of St. Nazaire, from Guadeloupe, with a cargo of sugar, bound to Bordeaux.

The Louise touched the port side of the Fuerst Bismarck, breaking her bowsprit and topmast. Capt. Albers at once lowered a boat, the chief officer went on board the barkentine, overhauled the vessel, sounded the pumps, and found that she made but very little water, and that the damage soon could be repaired.

Capt. Albers gave notice to the captain of the Louise that he would stay by the ship and give him all the help and assistance he needed, but the captain and crew would not stay on board, and requested to be taken on the Fuerst Bismarck. Capt. Albers reminded the French captain of his responsibilities and duty, but he and his crew were obstinate and would not proceed any further. They abandoned their ship and were taken on board the Fuerst Bismarck.

Two officers and eight volunteer sailors from the steamship then went on board the barkentine to bring her into an English port. After making by eight hours the Fuerst Bismarck proceeded on her voyage.

Returning from Hamburg, on her present voyage, the Fuerst Bismarck again met the Louise in latitude 43.18, longitude 21.52 west.

She stopped, lowered a boat and supplied the vessel with fresh provisions. The second officer, Mr. Rueter, who was in command of the Louise, reported that the ship was only making 2 knots, and that he only waited for a fair wind to take her into Queenstown.

Returning from Hamburg, on her present voyage, the Fuerst Bismarck again met the Louise in latitude 43.18, longitude 21.52 west.

She stopped, lowered a boat and supplied the vessel with fresh provisions. The second officer, Mr. Rueter, who was in command of the Louise, reported that the ship was only making 2 knots, and that he only waited for a fair wind to take her into Queenstown.

Returning from Hamburg, on her present voyage, the Fuerst Bismarck again met the Louise in latitude 43.18, longitude 21.52 west.

She stopped, lowered a boat and supplied the vessel with fresh provisions. The second officer, Mr. Rueter, who was in command of the Louise, reported that the ship was only making 2 knots, and that he only waited for a fair wind to take her into Queenstown.

Returning from Hamburg, on her present voyage, the Fuerst Bismarck again met the Louise in latitude 43.18, longitude 21.52 west.

She stopped, lowered a boat and supplied the vessel with fresh provisions. The second officer, Mr. Rueter, who was in command of the Louise, reported that the ship was only making 2 knots, and that he only waited for a fair wind to take her into Queenstown.

Returning from Hamburg, on her present voyage, the Fuerst Bismarck again met the Louise in latitude 43.18, longitude 21.52 west.

She stopped, lowered a boat and supplied the vessel with fresh provisions. The second officer, Mr. Rueter, who was in command of the Louise, reported that the ship was only making 2 knots, and that he only waited for a fair wind to take her into Queenstown.

Returning from Hamburg, on her present voyage, the Fuerst Bismarck again met the Louise in latitude 43.18, longitude 21.52 west.

She stopped, lowered a boat and supplied the vessel with fresh provisions. The second officer, Mr. Rueter, who was in command of the Louise, reported that the ship was only making 2 knots, and that he only waited for a fair wind to take her into Queenstown.

Returning from Hamburg, on her present voyage, the Fuerst Bismarck again met the Louise in latitude 43.18, longitude 21.52 west.

She stopped, lowered a boat and supplied the vessel with fresh provisions. The second officer, Mr. Rueter, who was in command of the Louise, reported that the ship was only making 2 knots, and that he only waited for a fair wind to take her into Queenstown.

Returning from Hamburg, on her present voyage, the Fuerst Bismarck again met the Louise in latitude 43.18, longitude 21.52 west.

She stopped, lowered a boat and supplied the vessel with fresh provisions. The second officer, Mr. Rueter, who was in command of the Louise, reported that the ship was only making 2 knots, and that he only waited for a fair wind to take her into Queenstown.

AFTER A LEXOW SHAVE.

"Is This Me?"

HOFFMAN TO CLOSE.

Extensive Alterations to Be Made in the Noted Hostelry.

No More Guests to Be Received Until Next September.

By That Time the Hotel Will Have Grown Two Stories.

The Hoffman House is taking no guests to-day. That familiar hotel will receive no new arrivals until September next.

El Stokes asked this morning that it be decided that he was putting out his tenants at brief notice.

"Everybody in the house has been notified for more than a week," said he, "that the hotel was about to be closed for alterations. People have been gradually moving out for that length of time."

The Hoffman House is taking no guests to-day. That familiar hotel will receive no new arrivals until September next.

El Stokes asked this morning that it be decided that he was putting out his tenants at brief notice.

"Everybody in the house has been notified for more than a week," said he, "that the hotel was about to be closed for alterations. People have been gradually moving out for that length of time."

The Hoffman House is taking no guests to-day. That familiar hotel will receive no new arrivals until September next.

El Stokes asked this morning that it be decided that he was putting out his tenants at brief notice.

"Everybody in the house has been notified for more than a week," said he, "that the hotel was about to be closed for alterations. People have been gradually moving out for that length of time."

The Hoffman House is taking no guests to-day. That familiar hotel will receive no new arrivals until September next.

El Stokes asked this morning that it be decided that he was putting out his tenants at brief notice.

"Everybody in the house has been notified for more than a week," said he, "that the hotel was about to be closed for alterations. People have been gradually moving out for that length of time."

The Hoffman House is taking no guests to-day. That familiar hotel will receive no new arrivals until September next.

El Stokes asked this morning that it be decided that he was putting out his tenants at brief notice.

"Everybody in the house has been notified for more than a week," said he, "that the hotel was about to be closed for alterations. People have been gradually moving out for that length of time."

The Hoffman House is taking no guests to-day. That familiar hotel will receive no new arrivals until September next.

El Stokes asked this morning that it be decided that he was putting out his tenants at brief notice.

"Everybody in the house has been notified for more than a week," said he, "that the hotel was about to be closed for alterations. People have been gradually moving out for that length of time."

AMIALE WINS THE OAKS.

More Turf Honors for the Sportive Duke of Portland.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, June 8.—At Epsom, to-day, "The Oaks" of 4,500 sovereigns, for three-year-old fillies, carrying nine stone each, distance about a mile and a half, was won by Amiable, brown filly, by Sir Simon, out of Tact, owned by the Duke of Portland.

Sweet Duchess, a brown filly, by Haglocope, out of Grand Duchess, the property of Sir R. W. Griffith, was second, and Sarana, a brown filly, by Saradana, out of Wild Hyacinth, owned by Lord Cadogan, third.

SIX SEALERS MISSING.

News from Japan Raises Doubts as to Their Safety.

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The latest news from the Japan coast is anything but encouraging to the sealers. In addition to the four vessels known to have been lost, it is reported that there are six other sealers, schooners, missing. They are the Mary H. Thomas, Alton, Baiter, San Diego, Unga and the Kate and Ann.

Not only have they not touched at Hokkaido or Yakushima, but they have not been sighted by any of the vessels which have put in there. The missing sealers are sailing from San Francisco, carrying crews numbering 100 men in all.

VIGILANT WAS BECALMED.

Passed at 8 A. M. Monday by the Steamer Washington.

The Dutch tank steamer Washington, which arrived this morning from Hamburg, reports that on June 4, at 8 A. M. in lat. 42.18, long. 61, she passed Vigilant becalmed.

SAIDIE NOT DIVORCED.

Her Lawyer Says She's "Mrs. Figman" for Business Reasons.

The Couple Sailed Together on the Normanna Yesterday.

Sadie Martinot is not divorced from Fred Stinson nor is she married to Max Figman.

The pleasant story of a hasty divorce and sudden marriage, which Mrs. Martinot and Mr. Figman gave out just before they sailed on the Hamburg-American liner Normanna yesterday, is a bit of diplomatic fiction. The unconventional fact that they booked on the steamer as Mr. and Mrs. Max Figman is another stroke of diplomacy, and bears an explanation that anyone with just a slight stretch of indulgence will accept.

"You see," he continued, "that Miss Martinot has debts. Touch that as you will, she is a woman of business, and she is growing threadbare, and something new being needed, she has assumed to be Mrs. Figman for a while."

From Mrs. Hummel's own statement, moreover, Miss Martinot does intend to divorce Stinson and to marry Figman. When she left her mamma behind and started for Europe she was accompanied by a sort of chaperon—a companion de voyage. She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

She is only to be gone for a few weeks, and will return to her home in New York.

EXTRA.
2 O'CLOCK.

DR. MEYER SENTENCED.

Must Spend the Remainder of His Days in Sing Sing Prison.

NO EVIDENCE OF EMOTION.

Motion for a Stay of Execution for One Week Denied by the Recorder.

CRITICISM OF THE VERDICT.

Smyth Declares the Jury Might on the Evidence Have Made It Murder in the First Degree.

Dr. Henry C. F. Meyer was sentenced by Recorder Smyth in Part III. of the Court of General Sessions this morning to the imprisonment in Sing Sing for the poisoning of Ludwig Brandt.

Dr. Meyer seemed to be perfectly composed, and took his sentence just as natural criminals does—as a matter of course.

He was sallow and thinner than at the time of his trial, but said, with a grim smile, that he never felt better in his life. He was taken from the Tombs to court in the prison van along with a dozen other prisoners.

Brooke and O'Sullivan, Dr. Meyer's counsel, were with him in court. Mr. Brooke formally withdrew the motion for a new trial for Dr. Meyer, and the Recorder then pronounced sentence.

The Recorder said: "The verdict of the jury was very logical. They might very properly have convicted you of murder in the first degree, by which you would have been sentenced to death. It would have been a just punishment for your crime."

Brooke asked that a week be given to Dr. Meyer to settle up his business affairs before execution of the sentence, but the Recorder refused to grant it, and Dr. Meyer was taken back to the Tombs, and will probably spend Sunday in a Sing Sing cell.

BRIDGE BILL A LAW.

President Signs the New York and New Jersey Measure.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The President has signed the New York and New Jersey Bridge bill.

STOCK PRICES DECLINE.

Market Opened Firm, but a Freshness to Sell Followed.

The stock market was firm in spots during the first half-hour or so of business to-day, and some shares improved 1-8 to 1-4 per cent. on the closing figures of last night, but subsequently the entire list declined under a moderate pressure to sell.

There were offerings of St. Paul, Louisville & Nashville and other stocks for London account.

United States declined 1-8-4 to 104 1-2; preferred 7-8, to 94-5-8; Louisville & Nashville 3-4, to 4-1-4; St. Paul 5-4, to 5-1-4; Distillers 3-4, to 3-1-4; Union Pacific 1-1-4, to 1-1-4; Atchafalaya 3-4, to 3-1-4; Chicago Gas 3-4, to 3-1-4, and Northern Pacific preferred 1-2, to 1-1-4.